

Cartography between Europe and the Islamic World 1100-1600

September 10, 2013

Lock-keeper's Cottage
Queen Mary University of London

Schedule

10.00 Alfred Hiatt (Queen Mary University of London), Towards a comparative history of cartography: preliminary thoughts.

10.30 Emilie Savage-Smith (University of Oxford), Collaborative work on European and Islamic cartography.

11.10 Coffee

11.30 Jean-Charles Ducène (Université Libre de Bruxelles; École Pratique des Hautes Études, Paris), Ptolemy's Jughrâfiya in the Arabic sources.

12.15 Yossi Rapoport (Queen Mary University of London), Mediterranean navigation before the portolan chart: an Islamic perspective.

13.00 Lunch

13.45 Related Projects

Leif Isaksen (University of Southampton), The Pelagios Project

Magdalena Peszko (British Library), The BL-Qatar Foundation Digitisation Project

Kurt Franz (Orientalisches Institut, Beirut) Mamâlik webGIS Project

Jerry Brotton/Adam Lowe (QMUL, Factum Arte) Factum Arte Map Projects

15.45 Coffee

16.10-17.30 Planning session for 2014 symposium

18.00 Dinner